

ONE MINUTE INSERVICE

Take a minute; learn a lot!

A strong correlate of academic success is the ability to compare and contrast. We generally use a Venn diagram as a graphic organizer. A Venn diagram, however, restricts the number of similarities one can write. Instead of a Venn diagram, try a DOUBLE BUBBLE. In the illustration below, S stands for a similarity and D means a difference.

